Expected Results:

To provide fast, cost efficient hearings which produce timely orders.

Outcome Measures:

To stay within budgetary and statutory time limits. The panel saves the state money by quickly scheduling and hearing only procurement cases so contracts are not held up by the procurement process. The panel heard seven cases in FY 07-08, this number reflects the stability of the panel's more than twenty years of experience and precedent provide to the public procurement process. None of the decisions were appealed to the Circuit Court.
